Passover Seder to be held in Branson Open to the Community

Make plans to attend a Biblical Passover Seder at The Sanctuary of Hope in Branson. The night of the Seder will begin at 6:30 on Monday, April 22, 2019. It will feature special music, traditional dance, the Biblical account of Passover and a complete dinner. Messianic Rabbi Jeremy Storch will officiate.

Everyone is invited, but seating is limited. The early bird price until April 7th is $35.00 for adults, $20.00 for children ages 7-12, $10.00 for children ages 3-6 and toddlers 2 and under are free. To purchase tickets or request additional information, please call 417-334-7373 or go online at <http://thetabernacleinbranson.com>.

The Passover celebration is an annual Jewish event commemorating the liberation and exodus from Egypt of several million Israelites approximately 3500 years ago according to biblical history.

"Our (Messianic) Passover celebration is really as much for Christians as it is for Jews," Rabbi Storch explains, adding that Messianic Jews are Believers in Yeshua (Hebrew for Jesus). "We believe that the Passover Lamb of Exodus points to Yeshua who was crucified on Passover as the Lamb of God."

Rabbi Jeremy Storch founded The Tabernacle 16 years ago. His congregation meets in Branson and includes Jewish believers and Christians interested in learning about the Hebrew roots of Christianity.

"A Messianic Passover Seder is really a rehearsal for the Marriage Supper of the Lamb, as prophesied in the Bible," Rabbi Storch explained. "It is something that every Christian should experience."

The Tabernacle holds Erev Shabbat (Sabbath eve) services every Friday at 7:30 PM and Shabbat (Sabbath) services at 11:00 AM every Saturday. The congregation is located at 256 Church Road in the Branson Hills Ministry Center.
